

Jadavpur University
M.Phil. Admission Test 2018
International Relations

Full Marks: 100

Time: 2 hours

Answers must be written in either English or Bengali

Answer any four of the following:

25x4=100

1. Define research questions and discuss, with illustrations, its different types.
2. Differentiate, with suitable examples, between experimental and non-experimental research designs.
3. Comment on the salient features of discourse analysis as a research method.
4. Define research design. Explain the role of research design in investigating problems in social science.
5. Discuss, with suitable illustrations, the advantages and disadvantages of survey methods in social science research.
6. Do you think that regionalism is increasingly losing relevance in a globalized world? Argue your case.
7. Explain the 'Act East' policy of India.
8. Analyze Locke's theory of political obligation.
9. Assess the political implications of 'Satyagraha' as propounded by Gandhi.
10. Can 'cooperative federalism' be a reality in the Indian political system? Give reasons.